A Very Merry Merry Christmas To All

Walter C. Wynn Now In Liberia

THE REV. WALTER C. WYNN, formerly of this city, who is now serving as principal of the Tuskegee School for Boys in Liberia, West Africa. By special request of The Script's editor, Rev. Wynn, with the assistance of his wife, Mrs. Thelma Thornton Wynn who is with him in Liberia, has released an article under the caption, "Tuskegee in Liberia," which will be found on page two of this issue. We invite your attention to this article.

Rev. Wynn, who is a Floridian by birth, was born in Jensen, Fla., to the union of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wynn. Mr. and Mrs. Wynn and their two children, Naomi and Walter, moved to this city in 1924, and shortly afterwards their mother, Mrs. Eliza Wynn, passed away.

Mr. C. R. Wynn continued his home here in Cocoa and for a short while in Titusville, then returning to Cocoa, where he still resides and is the local agent for the Atlanta Life Insurance Company. Young Miss Wynn attended various Florida colleges and began her teaching career, and today is Mrs. Naomi Ford of the local school faculty.

Young Mr. Wynn continued his school career, first here in elementary school and to Bethune-Cookman College with the aid of a

Rev. Coffey Ends Last Period Here

The Rev. W. B. Coffey, pastor of Mt. Moriah A. M. E. Church, has just ended his fourth and last quarterly conference of the church year and is making his last-minute preparations to attend his annual conference, which will be held in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., the guest of Mt. Hermon A. M. E. Church, the Rev. H. Y. Tookes, bishop of the Eleventh Episcopal District will preside.

Rev. Coffey's final quarterly report was very favorably commented on by his presiding elder, Rev. A. A. Williams, who held the quarter. The various church departments and its membership-at-large are ending all drives and efforts sponsored to conference aims and practically all reports are in.

Rev. Coffey will leave here on Jan. 7 for the Conference, which will begin Jan. 8.

Nick Ford Ships Fine Fruit

Mr. Nick Ford, one of Cocoa's private citrus grove owners, has been shipping some fine navel and pineapple oranges, tangerines and grapefruit for the last several weeks. This fruit, Mr. Ford states, is all tree-ripened and is without a doubt some of the finest of the state's citrus belt.

Mr. Ford has filled private orders to both old and new customers already, and is steadily receiving orders for gift boxes for Christmas. With his bicycle repair and rental shop on Magnolia and his fruit picking and shipping business, he has been kept pretty busy recently.

The Script's Next Issue January 4th

There will be no issue of The Script on Saturday, Dec. 28, and the next issue will be in circulation on the following Saturday, Jan. 4, 1947.

All readers and advertisers are reminded to take special note of this interruption and look for The Script on the first Saturday in January.

THE EDITOR

Ice Cream Parlor Is Xmas Present

Mr. Wallace Brothers, young and successful business man of this city and proprietor of the Economy Store and former proprietor of the adjoining ice cream parlor and drug sundry, has presented the ice cream parlor and sundry to his wife, Mrs. Harriette Brothers as a Christmas gift.

This gesture was made early last week, as was stated by Mr. Brothers, and already proud Mrs. Brothers has taken over and renamed the business "Harriette's Ice Cream Parlor" and she has planned a new set-up with many interesting features for the holidays.

See her advertisement on another page of this issue.

Mr. Brothers, a native Floridian, was born in this county and showed signs industrially at an early age and for five years he and his wife, who is of Holly Hill, S. C., were proprietors of a successful ice cream parlor in Monmouth, Ill.

Returning here in 1943, they ran a grocery, cafe and market at another location on Magnolia Street, which business was a favorite for ice creams and frozen custards during the war years when such delicacies were a luxury. Since moving into their present location at 233 and 237 Magnolia their two separate businesses have proved to be equally successful.

Mrs. Brothers is inviting the public to stop in during the holidays for refreshments rarely served here.

Kids Saw Santa at Walters Last Night

A vast number of children of all ages and from Cocoa and adjoining vicinities saw and talked with Old St. Nicholas last night at Walters, the new department store on Brevard Avenue. Along with the thrill of seeing Santa Claus last night, the children received gifts of candies and gum and other niceties which attract all little children. Santa promised to meet these kids and many more next year at Walters, and with the kids, it's a date.

Plans Big Menu For Christmas

MISS ETHEL JENKINS, attractive proprietor of the popular Rosa Maria Coffee Shop at 239 Magnolia Street, plans a heavy menu for holiday diners. She is asking that persons desiring special Christmas dinners, kindly call 2123 and make reservations for these dinner dates. She invites the public to dine with her during the holidays and enjoy her coffee and short orders between the regular meal hours.

Two More Weeks of New Subscription Rates

There are only two more weeks left to take advantage of the holiday subscription rates to The Script.

The drive which began on Saturday, Dec. 14, will end on Saturday midnight, Jan. 4.

This new rate brings the year's subscription rate from $4 to $3.50. Make your relative or friends a Christmas present with a year's subscription to your home town newspaper.

A Man at Home

"What voice does a man get in the decoration of his home?" asks an indignant male. The invoice, of course.

The Attainment of Success

By B. A. Morse

Success in any enterprise or industry is the product of labor. It must be sawed out of the forest, blasted out of the mines, plowed out of the field, achieved by close application in the institution of learning.

Alexander Hamilton, the eminent American statesman, said: "Men give me credit for genius; but all the genius I have lies in this: When I have a subject on hand I study it profoundly. The effect I make, they call the fruit of genius; it is, however, the fruit of labor and thought."

We need to prepare ourselves to endure physical toil as well as brain activity. This two-fold culture, when closely associated with tact to apply it skillfully, is an ever important factor. Indeed, labor, thought and skill are the essentials of a successful career.

Nothing can hinder young men and women from attaining success, if they are ablaze with determination. Those whose earthly training has been neglected may repair their defect by earnest study at home or in evening schools. If the time for this work is limited, that little should be improved. Napoleon once said, "The reason I beat the Austrian army is, they did not know the value of five minutes."

Success implies more than broad acres, large herds and heavily laden granaries. It is closely linked with the kindness shown to others, the good accomplished in our community and the help we bestow upon our fellows. Success means enterprise, thrift, skill, kindness and self-denial.

It is the very nature of man to be athirst. This instinctive characteristic marks the soul as infinite. He may be athirst for work, love, art, achievement, or any other worthy object, but it is a thirst that cannot be quenched by any one or all of them. The desire is gratified only by the hope of future attainment.

Miss not the occasion; by the forelock take

That subtle power, the never-halting time

Lest a mere moment's putting off should make

Mischance almost as heavy as a crime.

I'm wishing for all Script readers
A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR.

TUSKEEGEE IN LIBERIA

By the Rev. Walter C. Wynn

Little did Booker T. Washington realize how influential would be his mode of education. Countless schools, clubs, organizations . . . and now a coin . . . in the United States proudly bear the name of this illustrious man. Much of this is readily known by Americans but how many know that in far away Liberia, West Africa, the name, Booker Washington, is reverently borne by a school for boys . . . "a miniature Tuskegee," it is called.

This is how it came to be. Several years ago, the then president of Liberia, Mr. Charles King, visited Tuskegee Institute and was so impressed by all that he saw that he openly expressed an intense desire to transport the whole set-up to his country. Since that was impossible, he did the next best thing. Upon returning to Liberia, he influenced his government to pass a bill donating 1,000 acres of land and an annual sum of $5,000 to be used toward the construction and maintenance of a "Tuskegee in Liberia."

With this background and the keen interest of James Sibley, an American educator, the Booker Washington Agricultural and Industrial Institute was founded in 1929. It is maintained by a Board of Trustees representing the American Colonization Society, the New York Colonization Society, the Phelps-Stokes Fund, the Methodist Board of Foreign Missions, the Board of Missions of the Lutheran Church, and Mr. Harvey Firestone, Jr. Representatives of other missionary and philanthropic organizations serve on the American Board. There is also a Board of Managers in Liberia that keeps in close contact with the affairs of the school, and gives practical advice to the principal and the Board of Trustees.

The institute is favorably situated on the main highway, about 45 miles from Monrovia, the capital, and about one mile from the town of Kakata. Although all of the land has not been cultivated yet, much of it has been put to good use, agriculturally. The natural beauty of the campus is difficult to surpass, where six staff houses, industrial building, dormitory, dispensary, dining-room and chapel (combined at present), dairy barn and administration building . . . all of concrete or brick . . . are enhanced by stately palm trees and luxuriant tropical foliage. Communication by telephone to all the buildings, electricity, and running water are modern conveniences highly enjoyed by everyone.

To this setting, from almost every tribe and county, come boys thirsting for knowledge and eager to grasp everything that can be taught them. Incidentally, some are forced to walk from five to seven days from the deep interior in order to secure the education of their choice. Every year, regretfully, some have to be turned away on account of a capacity enrollment long before the opening of school.

Being an industrial school, classes range from the fourth grade through the ninth with plans for the addition of the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades. This year, 123 boys were enrolled in the various departments, namely: Carpentry, auto mechanics, blacksmithing and agriculture. As graduates these boys will be prepared to earn not only a decent living but also will be able to serve their country by helping to develop it agriculturally and industrially. The furniture made in the school work shop out of lovely native woods, such as mulberry, cherry, red oak, white oak, black gum, sour wood, and occasionally, mahogany, is truly a thing of beauty. Little wonder, then that orders pour in from all over the country.

It is the fervent desire of several interested persons to make B. W. I. coeducational as soon as possible so that girls might have the benefit of a type of training similar to that given the boys. Courses in home nursing, home economics, typing and shorthand could be added. This form of education would provide the girls with not only the means of livelihood but would produce better homemakers.

Our newest project is the establishment of a school library, which we hope will expand steadily until it becomes one of the finest in the land.

This year is the first time that the school has ever had a Negro principal. The staff is composed mainly of Liberians and a few American Negroes. The most recent addition to the staff are two Hampton graduates, Maurice Parks and Norris Miles, who have already caused increased efficiency in the industrial department.

Liberia is in the midst of making plans for a grand centennial celebration to which many Negro Americans ought to try to come, from 1947 to 1949; when they could see for themselves "Tuskegee in Miniature" across the sea.

COCOA JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

By Robinson, Jr., and Brightman
Mrs. Minnie S. Jones, one of our very fine instructors, has been absent all week with a lame leg, which is the result of an accident in which she received a deep bruise. She has been under professional medical treatment. Her absence is keenly felt at the school both among the students and faculty. We are wishing her a speedy recovery.

Miss L. A. Cuyler, instructress of the Ninth and Tenth Grades, plans to spend one week of the holidays in Mims with her family and will spend New Year's Day in Miami, Fla.

Mrs. J. Ruth Monroe, pioneer member of our faculty, is spending New Year's Day with her sister, Mrs. Sadie R. Davis, and family of Cocoa, Fla.

Miss E. M. McGhee's and Mrs. H. M. Houston's holiday plans are indefinite at present, while the remaining staff members are spending the holidays here at home.

Principal B. A. Morse is spending his holidays in Leesburg, Fla., with relatives.

Fred Campbell says he's going to Miami for the Yuletide and this ends the affairs of Cocoa Junior High until our return in January. A MERRY CHRISTMAS and HAPPY NEW YEAR to all.

City Briefs and Social News

By
Rosa L. Jones

Mrs. Hattie Wade was called to West Palm Beach, Fla., last Saturday to the bedside of her aged mother, Mrs. Mary Montgomery. Mrs. Montgomery is a pioneer citizen of Cocoa, having resided in her own home on Avocado Avenue and Manderine Street for many years. Only a year or more ago she went to West Palm Beach to live with one of her daughters, Mrs. Jones, where she is at present, confined to bed.

The young men and women will be coming home this week end from the various schools and colleges. Some of them are: The Hall brothers, Robert Jones, Annie L. Jones, Ruby Nichols, Rudolph Stone, Elouise Blake, Emmie Hunter and others whose names we have not obtained. They will be yelling "Merry Christmas to all" and home folks will be glad to have them home.

Mr. Samuel Strawter of College Park continues ill at his home. Don't forget to call to see him.

The Rev. W. M. Davis of Summa Street has returned to the city from Sanford, Fla., where he has been attending one of the Florida annual conferences of the A. M. E. Church.

Mrs. Georgia Baker Thompson of 8 Washington Avenue will leave the city Sunday for Brooklyn, N. Y., where she will be indefinitely. Her husband, S. Ck. 3/c Ellis Thompson, now stationed at Banana River Naval Air Station, will join her on his next leave. Mrs. Thompson plans to spend a portion of the holidays in Cuthbert, Ga., with her sister and other relatives.

Mrs. Manda Herd of 327 Magnolia Street left the city Friday, Dec. 13, for points in the northeast. She went directly to New York City, where she will visit her brother, Mr. Dennis Hinton. From there she will go to Newark, N. J. and be with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Williams, Mr. Williams having been ill for several weeks. In Waterbury, Conn., Mrs. Herd will be guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Mullerlyn. Mrs. Herd is accompanied on this trip by two of her grandchildren, Gloria and Leroy, who are the daughter and son of the Mullerlyns.

Mr. Eugene Diggs is one of the recent arrivals in our city to spend the winter season. He is a native of River Junction, Fla., and is the son of Mr. George Diggs, who for three years has lived here and is a successful carpenter. Accompanying young Diggs here was his cousin, Mrs. Willie Lue Isaac, who will also be here all winter. Both are with the older Mr. Diggs, the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Tate of 313 Peachtree Street.

Aged Citizen Ill

Mr. Joe Dassie, pioneer citizen of Brevard County and many years resident of Rockledge, Fla., is reported very ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Coffey of 222½ Magnolia Street. Mr. Dassie is well in his eighties and the Coffeys are sparing no pain in caring for him to their best knowledge and with supervision of his physician. Friends wish for Mr. Dassie a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Irene Coy, who has been in New Jersey with her husband, arrived here last Sunday to be with her mother, Mrs. Cubry and others of the family. They reside on Lemon Street, near Railroad Avenue. She states that Mr. Coy will join her here shortly.

The Sheffield twins, Charlie and Eddie, arrived here last week. They have been serving overseas in the U. S. Army and are honorably discharged from service. Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Sheffield, Sr., and a host of friends are thrilled to have them back.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCEMENT

Mrs. Minnie Pearl Allen wishes to announce the marriage of her sister, GEORGIA BAKER, to S. Ck. 3/c ELLIS THOMPSON on Friday, Dec. 13, 1946, in Titusville, Fla.

CHURCH NEWS

Zion Orthodox P. B. Church
By D. A. Hall

The Sunday School was opened at 10 a. m. with Superintendent D. A. Hall at his post. The lesson was taught for 30 minutes, and following the offering, the Christmas Shopping Committee was appointed. The Woman's Auxiliary had charge of the morning service, with the vice president, Mrs. Idella Brown presiding. A large number was present at the Union which was begun at 6 p. m. The president, Mrs. Brown, taught the evening's lesson.

The officers of the Woman's Auxiliary conducted the evening service and Mr. Willie McBride delivered the sermon, ably assisted by Mr. Brown. A good offering was lifted.

The Heavenly Church of the First Born

Adlease Potter, Reporter
Superintendent Chester Wynn presided over the Sunday School last Sunday at the above named church and a goodly number was in attendance.

In the evening Deacon Blake conducted the prayer service which began at 7. Our pastor, Elder James McMiller, preached a very soul-stirring sermon from Psalms 53:1, subject, "There Is A God Somewhere." This congregation will be glad to have you visit our church at any of our services.

THE TROJAN NEWS

By Loomis

Holiday greetings to all! The mighty Trojans ran wild again Wednesday night of this week against the fast-stepping Gifford school team. It might interest you readers to know that the Trojans outplayed the school's team throughout the entire four quarters. Jackson, one of the Trojans' aces just couldn't be stopped. "Ball and basket" was his motto and he played true to form.

Coach Waters couldn't walk very well but he made up in yelling, so much that he could hardly whisper when the game was over. The final scores read: 23-12, favoring the lucky Trojans.

You readers will not see the Trojans in action anymore until next year, when we shall return ready and able. So until then, Holiday Greetings.

scholarship from the late Mr. Cannon. He did his college work in Florida A. and M., after which he paused a year and taught in Titusville. He proceeded to Boston University, where he studied one year, then to Newton Theological Seminary of Boston, then to Brown University in Providence, R. I., where he received his Masters, during which time he was pastoring Pond Street Baptist Church in Providence.

In 1939, Rev. Wynn was married to Miss Thelma Thornton of Boston. At this point his inspiration to serve in foreign fields was great and his attempt to do so later was halted for the duration of the war. During the war years Rev. Wynn served at Florida A. and M. College as chaplain and his wife was in the English Department and directed dramatics.

As soon as was possible the Rev. and Mrs. Wynn sailed to Liberia, West Africa, arriving on March 26, 1945, and he accepted the principalship of this "Miniature Tuskegee" and Mrs. Wynn is serving as librarian. She, too, is a graduate of Boston University.

The Script is happy to herald the good work of these two young people are doing in far away Africa, and takes pride in chronicling the fact that "another local boy makes good."
